BLAMES VON TIRPITZ

Suppressed Attack on German Official Admits U-Boat Warfare Is Failure.

LONDON, February 9.—An article attacking the submarine warfare, which was suppressed by the German censor last October, has now been published with the sanction of War Minister von Stein, by the Kiel Zeitung. The article was written by Dr. Struve, a progressive member of the Reichstag, who declares that the submarine war is a failure, and disposes of considerable length who was responsible for the unrestricted submarine warfare agitation and for the statement that England could be forced to her knees within six months.

Dr. Struve asserts, after quoting a variety of witnesses, that the whole agitation was conducted and engineered by Admiral von Tirpitz, after the latter's retirement. The article then develops into an attack on von Tirpitz and the new Fatherland party for "getting Germany into this difficulty" and "loses with the assertion that the submarine warfare might have been a success except for the fact that von Tirpitz while in office had neglected to build submarines in sufficient numbers to insure success."

"That was the reason," adds the writer, "that unrestricted submarine warfare was always opposed by von Tirpitz (Minister of the Navy) and the Imperial Chancellor (von Bethmann-Hollweg)."

CROWN PRINCE MAKES SEVEN VAIN ATTACKS

His Troops Suffer Heavy Losses in Useless Effort to Hold Captured French Positions.

NO PERMANENT ADVANTAGE

Deliver Three Separate Assaults on Carrières Wood on Same Day. Five Columns Advance on Hill 344 During Dense Fog.

[By Associated Press.]
WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES IN FRANCE, February 9.—The armies of the German Crown Prince before Verdun since February 2 have suffered costly defeats in seven vain raids on French positions on both sides of the Meuse. Although large bodies of troops were employed at times, not a single permanent advantage has been gained. On February 2 the Germans made three separate assaults on the Carrières wood, but were hurled back with heavy losses. North of hill 344, on February 3, five German columns advanced in a thick fog, after a heavy preliminary bombardment, and succeeded in entering the French front line momentarily. The enemy was driven out in vigorous hand-to-hand fighting and again suffered severely. In the Baden division, preceded by shell units, assaulted the French line at the same place on February 4. They gained a footing in the trenches for a few minutes and then were chased off after uselessly sacrificing many lives and leaving some prisoners. On February 6, in the vicinity of Fosses wood, another attack was made at dawn after a short and sharp artillery preparation by Hanoverian troops and a relief division. They succeeded in reaching the French barbed wire and in occupying an element of the French positions. They were driven out almost immediately and pursued by the French, leaving many dead and a number of captured.

Between Samogneux and hill 344, on February 7, another German assault was repulsed with still more losses. This sector is composed mainly of potatoes and of groups of shell craters organized since the French gained their great victory last fall.

TRIAL OF BOLO PASHA PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

Persons in Close Touch With Case Believe in Early Termination.

CAILLAUX WILL TAKE STAND

Defense Shows That Prisoner Was Never Heard to Make Unpatriotic Expressions—Second Wife Stoutly Defends Accused Man.

[By Associated Press.]
PARIS, February 9.—The trial of Bolo Pasha on a charge of treason is progressing with great rapidity, and those in touch with the case look for an earlier termination than had been anticipated. Many of Bolo's witnesses are not in France, and it is expected that the lawyers will begin their arguments early next week.

Joseph Caillaux, former Premier, is expected to take the stand to-day as a witness for the defense.

The general trend of the testimony for the defense has been that none of the witnesses ever heard Bolo utter unpatriotic sentiments. Madame Bolo, the second wife of the accused, defended her husband stoutly.

The testimony of Charles P. Bertelli, the head of the Paris bureau of the International News Service, threw little light on Bolo's activities in the United States. M. Bertelli denied that William R. Hearst, to whom he introduced Bolo, was a friend of Germany. Concerning Bolo, Bertelli said: "Bolo spoke as patriotically as any Frenchman, as much so as M. Clemenceau for instance."

At to-day's session the public prosecutor submitted further evidence obtained in the United States, saying that it established the connection of Hugo Schmidt with the Deutsche Bank telegrams.

Former Premier Barthou then testified.
